

Mile-a-minute

(Persicaria perfoliata)

A trailing vine with barbed stems and triangular leaves. This plant dies each fall and new plants grow from germinating seeds in the spring.

How to control it: Plant can be pulled easily. Protect yourself from the sharp barbs by wearing a long-sleeved shirt and leather gloves.

